

Work in Progress: Redo, Rewrite, Restore

Forgiveness is deciding that someone who has wronged you doesn't have to pay.

MEMORY VERSE

“Put up with one another. Forgive one another if you are holding something against someone. Forgive, just as the Lord forgave you.”
Colossians 3:13, NIV

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, tell them how much you admire their compassion for others, and give them an example of a time recently when they were kind or thoughtful. (You may have many examples to choose from or just one.)

Meal Time

At a meal, have everyone at the table answer this question: “What does it feel like to be forgiven?”

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: “What is the nicest thing someone has done for you recently? What is something not so nice that someone has said or done to you or someone else recently? How did each of those moments make you feel?”

Bed Time

Pray for each other: “God, none of us are perfect. As much as we try to say or do the right thing, sometimes we don't. And we either hurt ourselves or someone else. When we do, give us the courage and compassion to seek forgiveness.”
